Exhibitor Requirements

- Items contributed must be sufficient for a classroom of 30 students and complete with teacher support material
- Only exhibitors at the NSTA Boston National Conference may participate.
- Items must be new (and more beneficial to your company if product is the newest release), non-refurbished, and grade range specific
- Companies submitting product(s) must give full detail (promotional materials and photos helpful) and retail value (used to promote total package value)
- Prizes are not a tax-deductible donation to NSTA. Exhibitors should consult their tax advisor regarding the tax deductibility, if any, of the product provided to winning schools.
- Gift certificates will be acceptable only from textbook companies to fit area requirements. Value of gift certificate must be sufficient to cover enough books to outfit one class of 30 students and teacher support materials.
- Exhibitors shall be solely responsible for all aspects of the prizes they supply including but not limited to quality, selection and delivery and shall indemnify and hold NSTA harmless from any claims arising out of or relating to the use and delivery of supplied prizes.
- Exhibitors may not use NSTA's name, logo or trademarks or the names, photos or likenesses of winners in publicity, promotional or advertising materials without the express written consent of NSTA and/or the winners, as applicable.
