

NSTA Membership Offer

We Want You Back, and We'll Give You 15 MONTHS FOR THE PRICE OF 12! Your membership expired several months ago, and we'd like you to change that! You know that all of the valuable information at <http://www.nsta.org> is just the tip of the iceberg in terms of the kind of professional support and guidance that your NSTA membership provides.

As a former member, you also know that NSTA membership is the best way for you to expand and enhance your knowledge and teaching skills; to make your voice heard on important state and national education issues; and to share your expertise with other members as part of a national community of committed educators.

Re-join NSTA now thru October 31, and your membership term will be 15 months long! That means you won't have to renew until at least January of 2008! Don't forget these great benefits:

- Choose the grade-specific journal geared to your specific needs
- Receive NSTA Reports, a monthly newspaper, September through May
- Search the online journal article archive
- Network with peers online and in real time
- Access the SciLinks® database of teacher approved websites
- Discover grant, scholarship, and leadership opportunities
- Receive discounts on books and registration fees
- And much more!

You'll receive all these benefits for 15 MONTHS for the regular membership dues payment of $74 for a one-year, one-journal membership.
